Stephen D. Gutiérrez is the author of Live From Fresno Y Los, a collection of stories recently published by Bear Star Press. Elements, his first collection, won the 1996 Nilon Award. He has published fiction in many magazines and anthologies. Recent appearances include Fiction International, PALABRA, Latinos in Lotusland: An Anthology of Contemporary Southern California Literature and the upcoming Sudden Fiction Latino. Personal essays have appeared in Fourth Genre, River Teeth, Los Angeles Times and ZYZZYVA. He directs the Creative Writing Program at California State University, East Bay.

Daniel A. Olivas is the author of five books including Anywhere But L.A.: Stories, Assumption and Other Stories, and the children's book, Benjamin and the Word / Benjamin y la palabra. He is editor of Latinos in Lotusland: An Anthology of Contemporary Southern California Literature, which brings together 60 years of Los Angeles fiction by Latina/o writers. Widely anthologized, he has written for many publications including the Los Angeles Times, the El Paso Times, PALABRA, Exquisite Corpse, THEMA, California Lawyer, and The Jewish Journal. He shares blogging duties on La Bloga (<http://labloga.blogspot.com>), which is dedicated to Chicano and Latino literature. By day, Olivas is an attorney with the California Department of Justice, and makes his home in the San Fernando Valley with his wife and son.

PALABRA @ The REDCAT Lounge is a series of occasional readings presented by PALABRA A Magazine of Chicano & Latino Literary Art
